

WAYZATA COMMUNITY CHURCH

SPRING 2026

CATALOG

Dear Wayzata Community Church Members and Friends,

As winter loosens its grip and we turn toward the hope of spring, we enter the sacred season of Lent — a time for reflection, renewal, and deeper connection with God and one another. Our journey begins on Ash Wednesday, when we gather in worship to remember our shared humanity and God's grace. That evening, our community will step into service together through Mission in Motion, a joyful Family Ministries event inviting all ages to learn, serve, and live out Christ's love in action — a meaningful way to begin the season.

Throughout Lent, we will be guided by our sermon series, Kindness Changes Everything (February 22–March 29). Each week, we renew our commitment to do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with God — and this series reminds us that kindness is more than a feeling. Inspired by Bob Goff's Everybody Always, we will explore biblical stories that show how small, Spirit-led acts of compassion can open new possibilities and quietly transform the world around us as we follow the way of Jesus.

Our Lenten journey leads us into Holy Week, as we remember the final days of Jesus' life — his courage, compassion, and sacrificial love — and move from the solemnity of Good Friday to the joyful celebration of Easter morning and the hope of resurrection.

As you explore this Spring & Lent Catalog, we hope you find opportunities for worship, learning, fellowship, service, and spiritual growth for every age and stage of life. However you join in, know that you are a valued part of this community — and that God is at work among us.

May this season shape our hearts with compassion and remind us that kindness truly does change everything.

With gratitude for the journey we share,
WCC Staff & Clergy Team

Lent Sermon Series

Kindness Changes Everything

At the close of every worship service at WCC, we renew our commitment to do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with God. But “loving kindness” is more than a warm feeling—it’s a daily practice of choosing compassion, especially when it stretches us.

Inspired by Bob Goff’s Everybody Always, this Lenten sermon series explores Biblical stories that reveal how kindness can redirect ordinary lives, open unexpected possibilities, and quietly transform the world around us. Together, we’ll reflect on how small, Spirit-led acts of love can reshape our days—and our shared life—as we seek to follow the way of Jesus.

February 22: You Don’t Have to Walk Alone — Ruth 1

March 1: Turning Water into Wonder — John 2:1-11

March 8: You’d Do That For Me? — Mark 2:1-12

March 15: Condemning Condemnation — John 8:1-11

March 22: Drawing the Circle Wide — Acts 10

March 29: Kindness Isn’t Cowardice — Matthew 21:1-11

Why God Wants Your Honest Anger: A Lenten Study on Lament

Wednesdays, February 25, March 4, 18, & 25 (*Not held on March 11)

4:00–5:00 p.m. or 6:30–7:30 p.m. • Colonnade

Led by Rev. Dan Stark

Are you tired of feeling like faith means pretending everything is fine? Lent is more than giving things up — it's about getting real.

Join Rev. Dan Stark for a four-week journey into the biblical practice of Lament — the raw, honest, and courageous language of prayer. Together we'll stop avoiding our pain, doubt, and frustration, and instead learn how to voice them directly to God, just as the psalmists, prophets, and Jesus did.

Lament teaches us that expressing sorrow, questions, and even anger is not a sign of weak faith, but a profound act of trust and spiritual honesty.

Don't just endure Lent — engage it. Claim the spiritual freedom that comes from speaking honestly to a God who listens.

Becoming the Peacemakers:

A Crash Course in Christian Peacebuilding

Wednesdays, April 8, 15 & 22

4:00–5:00 p.m. or 6:30–7:30 p.m. • Colonnade

Led by Rev. Dustin Janzen

Jesus said, "Blessed are the peacemakers." In a world marked by conflict and division, how do we live that calling today? Over three weeks, we'll explore the theology, history, and practical tools of Christian peacebuilding—learning how followers of Jesus can embody Christ's peace in everyday life.

Session Topics

- Session 1 — The Theology of Peacebuilding

Explore the biblical and theological foundations of Christian peacemaking.

- Session 2 — The History of Christian Peacebuilding

Trace how Christians across the centuries have understood and practiced peace.

- Session 3 — Practices for Conflict Transformation

Learn practical skills and spiritual habits for living as everyday peacemakers.

Come reflect, learn, and grow as we seek to live more deeply into the call of Christ's peace.

Bad Boys of the Bible II: Rebels, Rulers & Redemption

Wednesdays • April 29, May 6, May 13

4:00–5:00 p.m. or 6:30–7:30 p.m. • Colonnade

We often imagine the men of the Bible as flawless heroes—but Scripture tells a far grittier story. Many were cunning, arrogant, impulsive, and deeply flawed... and yet, God used them anyway.

Join Rev. Dan Stark for a three-week Bible study series exploring figures such as Ehud, the left-handed assassin who carried out God's work in the shadows; Jephthah, the gang-leader turned judge whose tragic vow reshaped his life; King Manasseh, whose late-in-life repentance came from a foreign prison; and King David, a leader capable of betrayal and violence—and yet still called a man after God's own heart.

Each week, we'll reflect on what these rebels and rulers teach us about leadership, human behavior, consequences, and the messy reality of redemption.

Come ready for a study that is honest, challenging, and deeply engaging.

GOOD GRIEF: Not the Life You Planned, but a Life That Has Shaped You

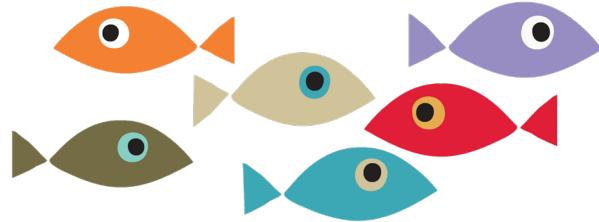

A retreat for parents and caregivers of children with disabilities

Wayzata Community Church – The Corner
April 24 • 5:00–9:00 p.m.
April 25 • 9:00 a.m.–5:00 p.m.
Cost: $100
Co-Hosted by Rev. Danielle Jones & Michele Ramert

Parenting a child with disabilities often brings deep love, unexpected joy, and profound grief, all woven together. Good Grief is a retreat created especially for parents and caregivers who are carrying the weight of a life that looks different than the one they once imagined.

This retreat offers space to acknowledge loss without shame, to name exhaustion without apology, and to honor the strength that has grown alongside the grief. Through guided reflection, shared stories, quiet moments, and compassionate community, we will explore how grief can coexist with hope, faith, and meaning.

This is a place to rest, to be seen. Your story matters.

annual The Rummage Sale

Wayzata Community Church

WCC Rummage Sale Looking Ahead to Sale #104

We celebrate the remarkable success of our 103rd Rummage Sale — with record gross revenue, one of the largest guest turnouts ever on our campus, and incredible energy and enthusiasm from our volunteers as they hosted the busiest two days of summer at WCC. Rummage had 23 different departments and 12 outdoor tents! We donated a record amount to the WCC Mission Board for distribution to community partners, and remaining items were shared with organizations such as the Salvation Army, Epilepsy Society, Habitat for Humanity, Sofas for Vets, Every Third Saturday, ARC, DAV, and others. In September, volunteers gathered for a joyful dinner to celebrate this milestone year.

Now we turn our focus to the 104th Rummage Sale!

- Volunteer Season Begins: June 1, 2026
- Sale Dates: July 15 & 16
