INTERFAITH ENGAGEMENT MINISTRY

Roundtable: Turning Hate Into Love Sunday, March 3 • 1:00-3:00 p.m., Mithun Hall

We live in an increasingly divisive and hate-filled country and world. Racism, religious fanaticism, intolerance of sexual orientation and many other deeply held prejudices have created an unprecedented need to find a way for us to accept others who are different from ourselves, and learn how to live together. We will explore this topic from Christian, Jewish and Muslim perspectives. Presentations will be followed by small group discussions. Refreshments will be provided.

Have you ever asked yourself the quintessential human question of identity, "What am I?" Most of us spend a lifetime trying to figure out who we are and how we relate to other and God. Unfortunately, in the process of forming an identity, we succumb to building up lies and illusions around our sense of self that only lead us further away from who we truly are. Mexico Mission Trip serve

Join trip leaders Jordan Masters and Gabe Flynn with trip speaker, John Ross, on the High School Mexico Mission Trip, March 28-April 2, 2019! This trip is a transformative faith and life experience where we travel across the border to learn from and partner with families living within the community of Tecate, Mexico. We work closely with Amor Ministries to build a house for those living in poverty and in need of a home. Being part of this trip is a profound, life-altering experience. The opportunity to give of yourself physically, emotionally and spiritually is unique, and to do so to improve the quality of life for other human beings is imm easurably rewarding. To serve in this way allows each person to more fully understand the love that is asked of each of us as Christians. Read more on our High School Ministry website, or contact Jordan, jmasters@wayzatacommunitychurch.org and Gabe, gflynn@wayzatacommunitychurch.org.
