ST. PATRICK'S DAY WORSHIP

This morning in our 9:00 a.m. and 10:45 a.m. services, the strings from the Wayzata Symphony Orchestra join the Chancel Choir and Celebration Singers for a Celtic-themed medley of music. WCC's partnership with WSO has been an enduring and special relationship, and we're thankful for their presence today. Thanks to Scout Troop 283 for ushering this morning.

BSA Troop 283 Pancake Breakfast

The BSA Girl's Troop 283 is hosting an all-youcan-eat Pancake Breakfast this morning from 8 a.m.-12 noon in Mithun Hall. There is a free will donation at the door.

CORE LENTEN STUDY

During Lent this year we are focusing on the doctrine of ATONEMENT. The issue of atonement is both central to the gospel and has amazingly drawn a lot of controversy of late. Every presentation of the gospel, every catechism and nearly every sermon has a theory of atonement at work. Ever notice this? This year, choose from Tony Jones' Did God Kill Jesus, and Scot McKnight's A Community Called Atonement. Register for classes online at www. wayzatacommunitychurch.org/springregistration.

Teachers: Rev. Rustin Comer and Dr. Ronald Troxel Wednesdays through April 10, 10 a.m. and 6:30 p.m., Colonnade

A Community Called Atonement Teacher: Rev. Rustin Comer

Wednesdays through April 10, 4 p.m., Colonnade

SEVEN LAST WORDS OF CHRIST LENTEN ART EXHIBIT

Through a generous loan from Westminster Presbyterian Church, the Wayzata Community Church Art & Design Committee curated an exhibit of spiritual artworks to parallel our Lenten Sermon Series journey through the Seven Last Words of Christ. The exhibit is installed in the short hall outside of Founders Hall, and the Long Hall by the reception desk and the Chapel.
