Music Notes (Autumn Toussaint)

Our anthem today is a 2017 composition by David Gungor and John Arndt (The Brilliance) with a little help from Matt Maher. They say they composed the song, "Turning Over Tables" as an eye-opener of how love can and should manifest between all God's children, no matter the differences between them.

*Fear runs deep spreading like a virus. Hate is cheap from afar it costs you nothing.
Sister take my hand, brother we will stand, open up your heart and find, love is turning over tables breaking off chains,
When I see you in the stranger I'm no longer a slave.
Turning over tables, tearing down walls. Building up the bridges between us all.
Let courage be my willingness to listen...*

By Our Love

Scholtes, Smallbone

We are one in the Spirit, we are one in the Lord,
We are one in the Spirit, we are one in the Lord,
And we pray that all unity may one day be restored:

(Chorus) And they'll know we are Christians by our love, by our love,
Yes, they'll know we are Christians by our love.

We will walk with each other, we will walk hand in hand,
We will walk with each other, we will walk hand in hand.
And together we'll spread the news that God is in our land. (Chorus)

We will work with each other, we will work side by side,
We will work with each other, we will work side by side,
And we'll guard each one's dignity and save each one's pride. (Chorus)

BAPTISM HYMN

This is My Father's World

Red #60

This is my Father's world, and to my listening ears,
All nature sings and 'round me rings, the music of the spheres.
This is my Father's world, I rest me in the thought,
Of rocks and trees of skies and seas, His hand the wonders wrought.

This is my Mother's world, the birds their carols raise,
The morning light the lily white, declare their Maker's praise.
This is my Mother's world, she shines in all that's fair,
In rustling grass I hear her pass she speaks to me everywhere.
