One Word Sunday

Resolutions seldom work because they are based on the type of person we're tired of being rather than who God wants us to become. Plus, resolutions can be "broken," leaving no room for the process of growth. What if our hopes for the year ahead centered instead on who God wants us to become, and the transformation process needed to get there? ONE Word replaces broken resolutions with a vision for real change. When you choose a single word, you have clarity and focus, moving toward the future rather than swearing off the past. Claim your word for 2019!

SERMON SERIES

That's (NOT) In the Bible: White Lies & Half Truths Beginning January 6, 2019

Sometimes we say things we don't believe in the hopes that it might help someone we care about— little white lies. Other times we say things we haven't fully thought through that turn out to be half true— at best. Often, we speak these words believing that they come from the Bible and we intend good, but the long term consequences can be harmful. In this 4-part collaboration among our four clergy leaders, we will explore four of these common phrases in the hope of discovering better language that has positive long term consequences.

- January 6: God Won't Give You More Than You Can Handle (Danielle Jones)
- January 13: Everything Happens For A Reason (John Ross)
- January 20: This Too Shall Pass (Lindy Purdy)
- January 27: Hate The Sin, Love The Sinner (Rustin Comer)

NEW MEMBER ORIENTATION CLASSES

We invite you to attend one of our New Member Orientations. Although these sessions are one of the ways you can join the church, at the heart is a time to connect with staff, clergy, and lay people, and a chance to learn more about what matters most at WCC. Even if you elect not to join WCC right now, attending one of these sessions will help you find a place here.

- Sunday, January 6, 10:15-11:45 a.m. in the Holmes Room, with John Ross
- Thursday, January 10, 6:30-8:00 p.m. in the Colonnade, with Danielle Jones

To sign up for a session, please contact Mandi Lee at mlee@wayzatacommunitychurch.org.

ISRAEL WITH REV. LINDY PURDY

Registration is now open for the Israel Trip, October 27-November 9, 2019. Brochures are available at the Reception Desk. There will be Israel Information Meetings on January 5 and January 19 at 9:00 a.m. in the Colonnade. For more information, contact Lindy Purdy: lpurdy@wayzatacommunitychurch.org for more information.

Join us for Coffeehouse, featuring fabulous music, steamy coffee drinks from Roastlab, and delicious desserts (included in the price of your ticket)! Enjoy an amazing line-up of music guests again this year. Doors open at 7:00 p.m., and music begins at 7:30 p.m. Check our website or the Winter catalog for all the details about this season's musicians.

INTERFAITH MINISTRY

Join the Interfaith Ministry for a visit to the Hindu Temple of Minnesota (10530 Troy Lane North in Maple Grove 55331) on Saturday, January 12. This is a sizable temple with 20+ shrines in a sunlit prayer hall. A Hindu teacher will lead our tour and answer any questions. We will meet at the WCC west entrance at 8:50 a.m. or at the temple at 9:20 a.m. The presentation begins at 9:30. The temple is a beautiful building; the information is fascinating. We all have a lot of interesting learning to do together. Questions? Contact Nan Peterson, nanpeterson6666@gmail.com

AUTHOR EVENT

ANNE MARIE GREWAL

Hear local author, Anne Marie Grewal, speak on her novel Beneath the Same Heaven — A story of love and terrorism on Monday, January 14, 6:30 p.m. in the Chapel.

Kathryn, an American woman, and Rashid, a Pakistani-born Muslim man, seem to have bridged the divide between Western and Islamic world views with their marriage and two American-born children. But everything changes when Rashid's father is suddenly killed by a US drone attack near the Afghan border, and their cross-cultural family descends into conflicting ideas of loyalty, justice, identity, revenge, and terrorism.
