FEBRUARY SERMON SERIES 23: The Shepherd's Psalm

This morning, we begin a new Sermon Series with a sermon titled 23:1— I have everything I need. The opening words of the most famous Psalm serve as an attention-getter: "The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want." Often obscured by the Shepherd image, God is our Shepherd means simply this: that we have everything we need. What are the things we believe we need that God doesn't provide for us? Or, what obscures our ability to see that God has given us everything we need? Read more about this series at www.wayzatacommunitychurch.org/worship/february-sermon-series/

AUTHOR EVENT: MARK LUTZ (Rescheduled) UnPoverty: Rich Lessons from the Working Poor Monday, February 11 • 6:00 p.m. in the Chapel

The poorest people in the world do not just survive—they thrive lavishly. They enjoy rich family relationships, build vibrant communities and exude deep faith. They have much to teach us about life and inspire us with their ingenuity, persistence, generosity, and self-reliance. Mark Lutz has visited families living in cardboard huts, hiked dusty paths to isolated African villages, and tiptoed across putrid open sewers on makeshift bridges. UnPoverty relays those astonishing encounters with unforgettable people: desperately poor, yet abundantly rich.

CORE: Planning a Celebration of Life Led by Rev. Lindy Purdy and Lee Minors Wednesday, February 20, 10:00 a.m., Colonnade

A guided conversation and helpful resources will help you think about what is most important to you and how you'd like to be remembered. Even if you plan to be around for many years, this is a gift you can share with your family members and a meaningful way to share the stories of your life. No matter what your age, this exercise will heighten your awareness of how precious life is and how unique yours is. (No registration required.)

The Neighborhood Program

February 26: Movie Night at IOCP

The Neighborhood Program (formerly Adopt a Neighborhood) is a ministry of joy. In partnership with Interfaith Outreach, WCC provides monthly dinners and activities for the residents of Kimberly Meadows Townhomes. The dinners offer an opportunity for families to gather together, to get to know new families, to grow friendships and to maintain a safe, supportive and fun community. We believe that being good neighbors is essential to our faith.

Join us February 26 from 6:00-7:30 p.m. to help serve dinner to about 50 people. Volunteers are needed to help bring food, to set up and serve, and to help with the family activities after dinner. Neighborhood events are great volunteer opportunities for families and people of all ages. Please contact Vicki Thompson at peterthompson9@comcast.net or 952-542-9152.
