

A vibrant comic book explosion graphic. The word "POW!" is written in a large, bold, stylized font with a red-to-orange gradient and a pattern of small white dots. The text is set against a bright yellow, jagged starburst shape. The background is a deep blue with numerous thin, black, radiating lines that create a sense of motion and impact. Scattered around the central explosion are several colorful stars (blue, green, orange) and small black circles, further enhancing the dynamic and energetic feel of the image.
