

WISHES for the WORLD

Do you have a “Wish for the World”? We would love to hear them!

Several years ago, two artists from Hallmark Creative Studio asked a wide group of “elders” from across the country this question. As anticipated, their responses were thoughtful, revealing and full of wisdom. Their wishes were developed into an art exhibit which included both the printed “wish stories” and a special piece of art that had been inspired by and created especially for their wish.

We would like to hear YOUR wishes, YOUR wisdom, and YOUR stories! Eventually, your wishes will become the foundation of a “Wish Storytelling Exhibit” at Wayzata Community Church. We will engage people in our community — artists, photographers, visionaries and other creative folks — who, inspired by the Wishes you’ve submitted, will create art in their chosen mediums for the storytelling exhibit (sculpture, collage, painting, photography, and more!) Combined, the Wishes and inspired art will tell pieces of the stories— the hopes, dreams, and wishes— of members of our church.

There is no more wonderful way to get to know people than to share and learn and hear our stories. We can not wait to hear yours! Everyone is invited to share their Wishes. There is no age limit, and there are no barriers. All wishes are welcome. If you would like your wish to remain anonymous, just make note of it below and we will honor that.
